Insurance Worksheet for Psychological Testing

Psychological testing is often covered by your health insurance policy. However, given that you are ultimately responsible for the cost, it is also helpful for you to check your own insurance benefits. The following is a worksheet meant to guide you in asking for the appropriate information.

To begin, have your insurance information available and call the customer service number on the back of the card. When you call, you will be requesting benefit information.

Questions to ask:

- 1) Is psychological testing covered by my insurance? _____
- 2) Does my insurance cover the following CPT Codes (procedural codes)?
 - 90791 _____
 - 96136 _____
 - 96137 _____
 - 96130 _____
 - 96131 _____
- 3) Do I have a deductible? If so, how much is left? _____
-If yes, will my testing cost go toward my deductible? _____
- 4) Do I have a co-pay? If so, how much is my co-pay? _____
please note that testing usually results in two co-payments
- 5) If I DO NOT have a co-pay, do I have co-insurance? _____
co-insurance means you will pay a percentage of the allowed rates; that amount will vary

Calculated Total: _____

(To calculate your total, add your deductible and your co-pay or co-insurance amount)
